CONFIDENTIAL · EXECUTION COPY

Regulation S Offshore Investor Certificate

Non-U.S. person and offshore transaction representations

FR-13 · VERSION 1.1 · 11 NOVEMBER 2026

EXECUTION COPY · SIGNATURE REQUIRED

This is the execution copy of a confidential company instrument. It becomes effective only when signed and, where applicable, countersigned by the authorised parties. It is not an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy securities, and no securities are offered or sold except under the executed agreement and applicable law.

> Confidential investor certificate. This certificate is for a person who is not a U.S. person and who is purchasing outside the United States in an offshore transaction under Regulation S. It does not replace the current IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E, which must be completed separately where applicable.

1. Investor identification

2. Non-U.S. person certification

The investor certifies that it is not a "U.S. person" within the meaning of Rule 902(k) of Regulation S. A U.S. person includes, among other things:

- a natural person resident in the United States;
- a partnership or corporation organized or incorporated under U.S. law;
- an estate of which any executor or administrator is a U.S. person;
- a trust of which any trustee is a U.S. person;
- an agency or branch of a foreign entity located in the United States;
- a non-discretionary account held by a U.S. person;
- a discretionary account held by a dealer or fiduciary organized in the United States; and
- an entity organized under foreign law that is owned by U.S. persons and formed for the specific purpose of investing in the securities.

3. Offshore transaction certification

The investor certifies that:

1. the offer and sale of the securities occurred outside the United States;
2. the investor was outside the United States at the time the offer was received and the sale was made;

3. the investor did not receive the offer in the United States;
4. no directed selling efforts were made by the company or any person acting on its behalf in the United States;
5. the investor is not acquiring the securities for the account or benefit of a U.S. person;
6. the investor will not resell the securities in the United States or to a U.S. person unless the securities are registered or an exemption is available; and
7. the investor will comply with the laws of its own jurisdiction, including any registration, filing, tax or exchange-control requirement.

4. Resale restrictions

The investor understands that:

- the securities have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended;
- the securities are “restricted securities” and may not be resold unless registered or an exemption is available;
- the company may require an opinion of counsel, a Regulation S certificate or other documentation before permitting a transfer;
- no public market exists for the securities, and none is expected to develop;
- the company may place a legend on the securities and the company’s records; and
- the investor bears the economic risk of the investment for an indefinite period.

5. Sanctions, AML and source of funds

Question	Response
Source of funds	[_____]
Is the investor a senior foreign political figure, an immediate family member or a close associate?	[Yes / No]
Is the investor owned or controlled by a sanctioned person or entity?	[Yes / No]
Is the investor located in a jurisdiction subject to comprehensive sanctions?	[Yes / No]
Has the investor been the subject of an AML, sanctions or fraud investigation?	[Yes / No]
Will the investor provide beneficial-ownership information on request?	[Yes / No]

The investor will provide any additional information the company or its bank reasonably requests.

6. Tax forms

The investor understands that the company may require a current IRS Form W-8BEN (for individuals) or W-8BEN-E (for entities), or another applicable form, before making a payment or issuing securities. The investor is responsible for completing the correct current form and for any treaty claim. The company does not provide tax advice.

7. Reliance and certification

The investor certifies that:

1. the information in this certificate is true, complete and accurate;
2. the investor will notify the company immediately if any information changes before the closing;
3. the investor has received and reviewed the offering documents, including the risk disclosure;
4. the investor has had the opportunity to ask questions of the company and its counsel;
5. the investor is not relying on any statement outside the offering documents; and
6. the investor is able to bear the complete loss of the investment.
