Its registered agent is A Registered Agent, Inc., 8 The Green, Suite A, Dover, Delaware 19901. The Company operates the TradingBible technology platform at tradingbible.app.

2. Authority and interpretation

This instrument is subject to the Company's effective Bylaws, applicable law, contractual obligations, and approvals reserved to members. Malik Nlem is identified as Chief Executive Officer in the Company records. No provision authorizes activity requiring a license, registration, or regulatory consent that has not been obtained.

3. Current legal form

TradingBible, Inc. is a Delaware corporation. Publicly traded corporate shares would ordinarily require a suitable issuer structure; a conversion, contribution or other reorganization route must be determined by counsel.

4. Ownership verification

Before restructuring, the Company shall reconcile its executed Bylaws, member interests, capital accounts, contribution records, options, convertible instruments and contractual transfer restrictions.

5. Tax and legal review

Advisers shall assess U.S. federal and state taxation, Nigeria-related management and tax exposure, IP transfers, commercial contract consents, regulatory licenses, liabilities and continuity of operations.

6. Corporate instruments

If a corporate conversion is approved, counsel shall prepare the legally appropriate plan of conversion or contribution, certificate of incorporation, bylaws, organizational consents, stock issuance records and equity exchange documents.

7. Conditions precedent

No corporate conversion is approved by this framework. A definitive plan must receive all required member and other approvals and be filed or completed as required by law.

Execution and signature record

The DocuSign tabs are anchored only to the unique execution line in each signer's block. Complete only the fields assigned to your capacity. A completed envelope is not a regulatory approval or a listing approval.
